Readings for Sunday May 2, 2021

Acts 9:26-31/Ps 22:26-27, 28, 30, 31-32
[26a]/1 Jn 3:18-24/Jn 15:1-8

This image of Jesus as a good shepherd doesn't seem to have the powerful meaning Jesus intended in the gospel today. Shepherds then had a terrible reputation as thieves and outlaws. They raised the animals used in the Jewish temple services, but because of their dirty profession, they were called "unclean" and not allowed to attend the services.

So we have the supreme paradox of Jesus actually calling himself a "good" shepherd. It would have been as shocking then as calling him "the good drug-dealer" or "the good slumlord."

Real shepherds were tough loners, men who fought off wild animals, rescued trapped lambs, ate what they could kill, and slept in the open with their dogs. Contrast this with those pristine pictures we usually see of Jesus as the Good Shepherd—standing there, untouched, tidy, in a blinding white robe with a few peaceful sheep at his feet.

Jesus is the "Good Shepherd" because he is the only shepherd who has lived our life and cares for us as for his own self. "I lay down my life for the sheep." He's not some untouched icon; he is in there, fighting for us and with us in the grittiest and toughest moments of our lives.

Today on World Day of Prayer for Vocations, we listen as Jesus proclaims our one and only vocation: "Follow me!" We are called to be lovers—of God and God's children. We are called to use our unique combination of gifts in whatever lifestyle will best allow us to "Follow Him", be it single, married, priestly or religious life. Let us follow Jesus by listening well!

✠ We offer our best wishes and prayers for join in special prayer for the children in our parish family who are receiving Jesus in the Eucharist for the first time this weekend. They and their families have been preparing for this great event for some time now, learning what the Eucharist is all about and what it means to be part of the Eucharistic community. May our children and their families always be eager to receive Jesus at his Table of Life. Special thanks to Theresa Carbone, Dena Sedlak and to all who have shared their faith so joyously with these children.

✠ Let us also pray for our young men and women who will receive the Holy Spirit in the sacrament of Confirmation on Saturday, May 15th, at Mass with Bishop Dominic Marconi.

✠ Thank you to the 147 parishioner families who have made a pledge to the Archdiocesan Annual Appeal. To date we have $44,480.00 in pledges. We have surpassed our parish goal of $36,600.00. Our Parish now receives a portion of all donations. We ask every parish family to make a pledge or one time gift. Give a little...Give a lot... But, please, give something! Brochures are in the church vestibule and there is a direct link to the Appeal on our website. Thank you for your support.

✠ May is almost here, It is that special month we dedicate to Mary, the Mother of God who is our Mother, too. On May 2nd at the 9:30am Mass we celebrate our annual Parish May Crowning. Our First Communicants will help us to give special honor to our Blessed Mother. Also, please remember that we pray the Rosary Monday through Saturday at 7:45am in church. We also pray the Novena to Our Lady of Perpetual Help each Wednesday at 7:30pm.

✠ Remember, Mother's Day is Sunday, May 9th. Mother's Day Mass Cards are available at the doors of the church to remember our mothers, living and deceased, for the month of May.

Know that I pray for you every day. Please pray for me, too. God Love You!

We especially welcome those who have been away from Ascension due to school, illness or living elsewhere for whatever reason. It is good to have you home again. Welcome to all visitors.

Thank you for choosing to celebrate your Easter with us.

Easter is the most beautiful and holiest time of year, when we celebrate Jesus' new life shared with us at Easter and all throughout the year – the gift of life, the gift of faith, and the gift of each other.

We invite you to share in many important celebrations of Jesus' new life shared with us during the seven weeks of the Easter Season and beyond.

We will keep you informed of our live-streaming on Facebook.

On Sunday, April 25th, we will celebrate First Holy Communion.

On Sunday, May 2nd, during the 9:30am Mass we will celebrate our Crowning of our Blessed Mother.

On Saturday, May 15th, we will celebrate the coming of the Holy Spirit into the lives of our young men and women in the sacrament of Confirmation.

We will observe Mother's Day on May 9th and we will celebrate the Blessing of Mothers at all weekend Masses.

We will celebrate our Parish Feast Day, Ascension Thursday, May 13th. * Mass will be celebrated at 8:30am and our solemn celebration at 7:30pm.

What a special day for us!

*If the Cardinal changes the holiday to a Sunday, we'll let you know.

On May 23rd, the Solemnity of Pentecost, we celebrate the special presence of the Holy Spirit in our lives.

We end the Easter Season on the weekend of May 30th, Most Holy Trinity Sunday.

On Sunday, June 6th, we will celebrate Corpus Christi at 11:30am Mass.

We will observe Father's Day on this weekend of June 20th with the Blessing of Fathers at all weekend Masses.

I encourage you to immerse yourself in the spirit and graces of the season by participating in these special celebrations and I ask that you bring someone you love with you.
