Readings for Sunday August 2, 2020

Is 55:1-3/Ps 145:8-9, 15-16, 17-18 [cf. 16]/Rom 8:35, 37-39/Mt 14:13-21

Today we have a chance to listen in to the deep desires of Solomon, who became king when he was a teenager. In a dream, God said to him, "Ask something of me and I will give it to you." Amazingly, Solomon didn't ask for money or power or an A+ on his math exam! He asked for "an understanding heart to judge your people, and to distinguish right from wrong."

Solomon listened to his own conscience to discover the most important thing in life: that is, to bring God's kingdom into the world by his choices and actions. Wow—can you picture the proud parents of a kid who asked for wisdom?

Most kids try to stop and think, to the best of their ability, before making decisions. But parts of our brains don't develop decision-making ability until later in the 20's. So that is why parents try to guide kids to better choices than just emotional ones. But there is another way to make good decisions, no matter how young you are. God is speaking to your heart from the moment you are conceived! Did you know that? This is one reason Catholics are against abortion—because God creates every life, and speaks to that baby from the first moment.

If you're 16 or 18, God's been forming your heart in you all those years—telling you that the only important thing in life is bringing in the kingdom. The kingdom of heaven means living with God's values, instead of lust, selfishness, greed, pride, or anger. The teenage Solomon is wise, because he asked for wisdom to bring more justice, love, and peace to his world.

God is calling you to a real life. Get in the habit of talking to God deep in your heart every day, and then listen. Be a kid who lives as if you know the most important thing in life.

✘ Just a gentle reminder. Summer is the season for outdoor barbecues, beaches, and, of course, those well-deserved family summer vacations. While families spend hours planning ahead for those 3-day weekends and weeks out of town, they sometimes tend to overlook that their parish needs them even during the summer months. Envelopes are often forgotten.

Our parish bills do not stop during the summer months. Please help us by making your offering each week. If you are away for vacation, please remember your missed offering the following week. What better time than the summer to consider how We Share consistently sustains parishioner support the whole year?

Electronic giving helps parishioners give consistently with the peace of mind knowing that they are doing their part to support their parish and its ministries. Why not consider enrolling in electronic giving this week? Thank you for your faithful stewardship.

Know that I pray for you every day. Please pray for me, too. God Love You!

P. David

True Freedom

Christ freed us from sin. Patriots throughout the ages fought for our freedom. There are still those today who cannot enjoy freedom from poverty. Why not celebrate your freedom by an act of kindness? One way to do this is by donating your unwanted used clothing, small appliances, shoes, linens, sheets, towels, stuffed animals, novels, toys and children's books to our Catholic Charities donations bin located on our property. Please note clothing donations are not sold for rags, they are resold in thrift stores. Thank you.
